By-Laws of Queens Recreational Boating Association

As amended by: May 29, 2011; April 30, 2018; March 13, 2019

12.0 At each annual general meeting of the Society, the following items of business shall be dealt with and shall be deemed to be ordinary business.

- Minutes of preceding general meeting.
- Consideration of the annual report of the directors.
- Consideration of the financial statements, including balance sheet and operating statement and the report of the auditors thereon.
- Election of directors for the ensuring year.
- Appointment of Auditors.
- Appointment of Nominating Committee.

All other business transacted at an annual general shall be deemed to be special business and all business shall be deemed special that is transacted at any extraordinary general meeting of the Society.

13.0 No business shall be transacted at any meeting of the Society unless a quorum of members is present at the commencement of such business and such quorum shall consist of five members.

14.0 If within one-half hour from the time appointed for the meeting, a quorum of members is not present, the meeting, if convened upon the requisition of the members, shall be dissolved. In any other case, it shall stand adjourned to such time and place as a majority of the members then present shall direct and if at such adjourned meeting a quorum of members is not present, it shall be adjourned.

15.0 (a) The President of the Society shall preside as Chairperson at every general meeting of the Society.

As amended by: May 29, 2011; April 30, 2018; March 13, 2019

POWERS OF DIRECTORS

32.0 The management of the activities of the Society shall be vested in the directors who, in addition to the powers and authorities by these by-laws or otherwise expressly conferred upon them, may exercise all such powers and do all such acts and things as may be exercised or done by the Society and are not hereby or by Status expressly directed or required to be exercised or done by the Society in general meeting. In particular, the directors shall have power to engage a coordinator and to determine his duties and responsibilities and his remuneration. The directors may appoint an executive committee, consisting of the officers and such other persons as the directors decide.

OFFICERS

33.0 The officers of the Society shall be a President, a Vice-President, a Treasurer and a Secretary. The officers of Treasurer and Secretary may be combined.

34.0 The members shall elect one of their members to be the President of the Society. The President shall have general supervision of the activities of the Society and shall perform such duties as may be assigned to him/her by the members from time to time.

35.0 The members may also elect from their number a Vice-President. The Vice-President shall, at the request of the members and subject to its directions, perform the duties of the President during the absence, illness or incapacity of the President or during such period of the President may request him/her to do so.

36.0 (a) There shall be a Secretary of the Society who shall keep the minutes of the meetings of members and directors and shall perform such other duties as may be assigned to him/her by the members. The members shall appoint the Secretary and may also appoint a Treasurer of the Society to carry out such duties as the members may assign. If the members think fit, the same person may hold both offices of Secretary and Treasurer.

(b) The directors may appoint a temporary substitute for the Secretary who shall, for the purpose of these by-laws, be deemed to be the Secretary.

AUDIT OF ACCOUNTS

37.0 The auditor of the Society shall be appointed annually by the members of the Society at the annual general meeting and, on failure of the members to appoint an auditor, the directors may do so.

38.0 The Society shall make a written report to the members as to the financial position of the Society and the report shall contain a balance sheet and operating account. The auditors shall make a written report to the members upon the balance sheet and operating account and in every such report, he/she shall state whether, in his/her opinion, the balance sheet is a full and fair balance sheet containing the particulars required by the Society and properly drawn up so as to exhibit a true and correct view of the Society's affairs, and such report shall be read at the annual meeting. A copy of the balance sheet, showing the general particulars of its liabilities and assets and a statement of its income and expenditure in the preceding year, audited by the auditor, shall be filed with the Registrar within fourteen days after the annual meeting in each year, as required by law.

39.0 The Society has power to repeal or amend any of these by-laws by a special resolution passed in the manner prescribed by law.
